Dedication

We give this Book to the freedom of all mankind

Freedom is an indivisible word. If we want to enjoy it, and fight for it, we must be prepared to extend it to everyone, whether they are rich or poor, whether they agree with us or not, no matter what their race or the color of their skin.

Senior Traditions

you know it's your Senior year when:
you can joke around with your sophomore teachers
your ring has become so fused to your finger that you couldn't get it off, even for Mr. Bidwell or Mrs. Palmer your class yell isn't just the loudest, but the best you have your own patio and your own piece of shade you can be benevolent to underclassmen without even thinking about it you never have to look for a place to sit in the cafeteria...
or the stadium...
or the library
school is not just a place you have to go, it has become yours
you see an old, secure life coming to a close, and a new exciting one beginning
... and you're not afraid

When you are an exchange student, letterwriting gets to be a kind of business. You have your scheme and you know what to write to what sort of people.

But as I was asked to write a letter to the yearbook, I just had no idea how to express myself.

Let me try it.

Dear Teachers, friends and others!

In this absolutely great and glorious school year you showed me with your kindness and love what real friendship is. I'm absolutely heartbroken to think about leaving you behind.

Love forever - and so on. Nice try. How about another one!

Teachers, and your other school spirit, materialism and those things really upset me about this school. I disagreed with very many things and fully hope that you are going to change this school.

Wow. Both of those lies were lies. Being in this school meant to me, being for one year right in the middle of you. Spending this year in McLane gave me a great experience with many things I didn't like and I liked. Having fun with you, working hard with you - that all together gave me a year I won't forget. Thankyou and when I say thankyou I mean it.

What'd you call me?

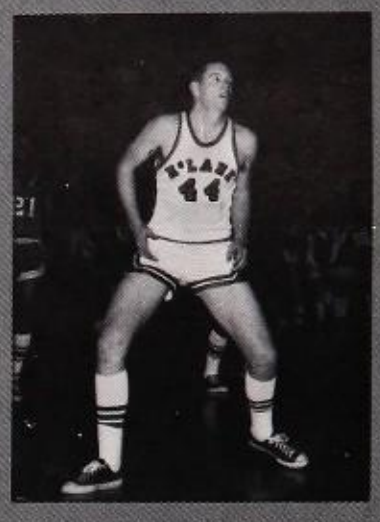
On your marks -----

Who me a boozer?

That Ipana smile.

Hey buddy want to fight?

Clorox needed here.



The dance starts this way gang.

Our side had 25% fewer cavities with mud!

ONE of the girl's night out.

Hey Phil, are you sure this is a duck?

Then how about Saturday night?

Do you have that fly-away feeling?

Deb
You really mean a lot to me! I hope that these words
don't seem like the false-front some people put on. I mean them in the most sincere sense possible.
I hope that future time brings upon all the love and success that you deserves. I'll miss that great personality that has touched my thoughts this year.

Debbie:

Oh Deb, what an experience, huh. (I'm signing at the senior party) I'm so glad we could be friends for all this long - Thank you so much for such kind friendships, really, you're always so sweet and concerned. I* hope you have lots and lots of fun at BYU - I'm sure you'll be quick to find + attract friends and let's hope they will be dear, close, good ones and that you'll be very happy - Please let's stay somewhat in touch, okay? I'm really interested in you although it seems we're together too little with so varied and diverse other friends + activities. I'm really jealous of your looks, especially with your hair the way it is now. Nobody can ever top your beautiful smile though, ever

Good luck to you (and me!) this summer about $ and jobs. See you often 'til September, anyway!

Love and happy wishes

PISCHEL YEARBOOKS, INC.

Debi,

You are one of the people that I have grown very attached to this year. Sometimes words cannot express feelings, but I really admire you because you are so sincere. In my eyes and in many other peoples eyes you stand out among the crowds of people because you are a sincere and truly good Christian. Please don't change because the world needs people like you. I want you for your friendship and I hope that you meet many people like yourself and treat them the same way you have treated me. Good luck and most of all happiness. I will be thinking about you next year and praying for you.

Your friend,
Lisa
